CAPO CRUNCH

Hi there! Welcome to Capo Crunch! Join us every month for menu updates, wellness tips, nutrition knowledge & more!

FARM 2 SCHOOL: ORGANIC PAGE MANDARINS

Page mandarins are a delicious winter fruit, only available for a short time in the winter and early spring.

Did you know that their bright color comes from vitamin A, which is good for your eyes and skin?

Page mandarins also have fiber, which is good for digestion and helps lower cholesterol.

We are proud to partner with Dickinson Family Farms In Fallbrook to serve Page mandarins grown within 150 miles of CUSD.

Buying local, seasonal produce means enjoying food at its peak flavor, supporting local farmers, and making a positive impact on the environment.

SNOWFLAKE POSE

Stand tall with your legs hip-width apart, feet facing forward. Straighten your arms out alongside your body. Pretend to be a snowflake drifting down from the sky. Close your eyes and take a few deep, calming breaths. Stick out your tongue and pretend to catch snowflakes on your tongue!

FARM 2 SCHOOL: ASIAN PEARS

Say hello to a different kind of pear!

Asian pears were grown in China and Japan for thousands of years. Chinese and Japanese immigrants brought the Asian pear to California in the 1850s during the Gold Rush.

Asian pears are more round-shaped than other pears. That's why they're also called apple pears! These pears are crisp, juicy, and sweet.

Asian pears have lots of fiber to keep your gut healthy and vitamin C to help your immune system. Try one at school this winter!
