HARVEST OF THE MONTH: KUMQUATS

Kumquats look like tiny, oval oranges. Unlike oranges, the skin is eaten!

The skin is the sweetest part of the kumquat while the inside fruit can be sour.

In Chinese culture, kumquats are a symbol of good luck and are very popular during New Year celebrations.

Before eating, roll each kumquat between your fingers with a small amount of pressure. This releases fragrant oils in the skin and makes the fruit taste even better!

Hi there! Welcome to Capo Crunch! Join us every month for menu updates, wellness tips, nutrition knowledge & more!

VENDOR HIGHLIGHT: HOLLANDIA DAIRY

We proudly purchase milk and dairy products from Hollandia Dairy, a family-owned and operated business in San Diego County. The Hollandia Dairy story began in 1949 when Mr. and Mrs. Arie de Jong and their 10 children settled in Poway from Holland.

Their possessions were few and included a total of $32.00 cash. Today Hollandia Dairy is one of the oldest independent producer and distributor dairies in California.

Staff feeds, cares, comforts and milks every cow at the San Jacinto dairy farm daily, just less than 50 miles away from the San Marcos Milk Processing plant.

Proud Farm Practices at Hollandia Dairy:

- Milk comes from cows not treated with rBST.
- Certified Humane Dairy.
- Environmental Stewardship, water and energy conservation.
